

Our company, like our industry, has been rapidly changing. To ensure we're delivering smart, integrated solutions that will meet customers needs now and into the future, we're evolving our brand to bring all our companies together under one name: Wolter.

Our Mission

Create serious competitive advantages for customers, by leveraging our products, services and our people's unique expertise to reimagine their operational productivity opportunities.

Our Promise

Wolter takes a team-oriented approach to customers' operational productivity challenges. Through the sharing of a diverse range of disciplines and ideas, we're able to look at every customer's situation more holistically. As a result, we provide tailored solutions uniquely designed to Accelerate Your Productivity.

Who We Are

Think of us as an operational productivity toolbox...from new and used material handling equipment, service and training to automation and robotics, overhead cranes and hoists, standby power generation, railcar movers, office and industrial storage solutions, complete engineered systems and more. We're helping customers reimagine what is possible.

Core Values

Supportive

- ▶ We're always striving to be understanding and helpful because our customers' success helps ensure our own.

Independent

- ▶ Being family-owned, we have structured our company and our growth around our customers' needs.

Honest

- ▶ A foundational quality of trusted, long-term relationships, it's been part of who we are since our inception in 1962.

Realistic

- ▶ While we understand budgets aren't limitless, we apply our exceptional ingenuity to help customers go further, faster.

Resourceful

- ▶ We're proud to be the operational productivity toolbox that's the envy of the industry.

Dependable

- ▶ We believe in having our customers' backs no matter what. Our people look forward to proving that every day.
